The California State University System (CSU) makes every effort to keep student costs to a minimum. Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, CSU must reserve the right, even after initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees, without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester has begun. All CSU listed fees should be regarded as estimates that are subject to change upon approval of The Board of Trustees of the CSU.

Check your payment due dates! Any unpaid balance after the due date is subject to a $10 late fee. You may be held liable for collection/legal costs related to any unpaid charges.

Students who do not intend to attend the current term are responsible for dropping their classes before the 1st day of instruction. Students who drop all their classes thereafter will owe pro-rated fees based on the date of withdrawal.

* Your balance is NOT due at this time if your financial aid/scholarships by term cover your charges by term. For example, your Fall 2012 anticipated aid is greater than your Fall 2012 registration fees.

* You may have charges due not covered by anticipated aid/scholarships. Please pay these charges by the due date. Examples include SOAR, library fines and late fees.
