Dear Ms. Jao:

Thank you for your recent passport application. We need your help in providing additional information in order to continue processing your request.

- ♦ The relationship between you and the parent signing your application has not been established. Please submit evidence of your relationship to the applying parent(s) in the form of a certified foreign birth certificate including the parents' names. If the document is not in English, please also submit a translation from an organization such as a foreign embassy or consulate, or translation service, etc. of the document. The translation should include the name, address and telephone number of the organization or individual who translated the document. Photocopies and notarized copies are not acceptable for passport purposes.

If the parent(s) name(s) is/are other than that on these documents, you will need to submit evidence of a legal name-change in the form of a certified divorce decree, marriage certificate, or court order.

If we do not receive the requested information within ninety (90) days or the information you submit is insufficient to establish your entitlement to a U.S. passport in accordance with the relevant provisions of Part 51 of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations, your application will be denied and your evidence returned to you. Any special return postage will be returned or refunded.

PLEASE PRINT THIS LETTER AND RETURN IT WITH YOUR REPLY BY MAIL TO THE ADDRESS LISTED ABOVE, ATTENTION: SUSPENSE DEPARTMENT.

Sincerely,

Emi Fujimoto
